Guided Canoe / Kayak Paddling Safaris Information Sheet

Bay Minette Basin

Paddling Safari Type:

Evening sunset trips in summer and fall are especially attractive in the Basin. During the trip you will enjoy creek, main river channel and back bay/open water paddling. Enjoy a scenery of primarily open canopy estuarine marsh, bordering sand hill bluffs of Longleaf Pine, Maple, Oak and Hickory.

Distance: Less than 4 miles

Time on Water: 3-4 hrs

Safari Length: ½ Day

Expected Wildlife:

Alligator, Nutria, River Otter, Deer, wading birds, water fowl, various water snakes and aquatic turtles.

Season:

Can be paddled year round. Water levels may become very low in winter after cold fronts with a prolonged north wind. Good for beginner paddlers.

Hurricane Creek

Paddling Safari Type:

A slow leisurely current assists our guests with their creek and main river channel paddling through open river and forested wetland habitats composed of marsh grasses and Cypress / Gum forests.

Distance: Less than 4 miles

Time on Water: 3-4 hrs

Safari Length: ½ Day

Expected Wildlife:

Alligator, Nutria, River Otter, Beaver, Deer, wading birds, various raptors, various water snakes and aquatic turtles.

Season:

Can be paddled year round. Water levels consistent for all seasons. Great for beginner paddlers.

Gravine Island / Military Cut / Big Briar Creek

Paddling Safari Type:

This trip involves Creek and main river channel paddling. Open river and forested wetland habitats composed of marsh grasses, Cypress/Gum forests and man-made sand spoil banks. The Spoil banks offer dry sand hill habitats surrounded by low wetland swamps. Spoil banks are also major nesting areas for the endangered Alabama red-bellied turtle.

Paddle Distance: 8 miles

Time on Water: ~5 hrs

Safari Length: Full Day

Expected Wildlife:

Alligator, River Otter, Deer, Feral Hogs, wading birds, various raptors, various water snakes and aquatic turtles.

Season:

Due to the extent of open river paddling, this trip is limited to optimal weather conditions during spring, summer and early fall and a reasonable level of fitness is recommended.

Bayou Heron

Paddling Safari Type:

The Bayou Heron introduces our guests to blackwater seepage streams with a strong tidal influence. Some open salt marsh paddling and tidal creeks lead to habitats consisting of Juncus / Spartina estuarine marsh with sporadic oyster shell middens of Live Oak and Marsh Elder. During summer, large expanses of seagrass can be seen in protected coves of Bayou La Fourche and Barton Island. An additional walk through the Live Oak Birding Trail may be included if time allows.

Paddle Distance: 8 – 12 miles

Time on Water: ~8 hrs

Safari Length: Full Day

Expected Wildlife:

Alligator, Plovers / Oystercatchers / Terns / Black skimmer, River Otter, Deer, Feral Hogs, Black Bear, the only brackish water turtle species in the world - Diamondback Terrapin, Turkey, wading birds, various raptors, various water snakes and numerous frog species.

Season:

Due to the degree of open water and strong tidal influence, this trip is limited to late spring/summer/early fall. Guests should have good physical fitness.

Magnolia River

Paddling Safari Type:

This safari travels down a blackwater river and blackwater seepage streams with a strong tidal influence through habitats consisting of Juncus / Spartina estuarine marsh and freshwater swamps. A short walk through a native pitcher plant bog maintained by the Weeks Bay National Estuarine Research Reserve and discussion of endemic species may be included if time allows.

Escatawpa River

Paddling Safari Type:

This blackwater river of slow to moderate flow is tea colored from tannins that leach out and stain the water. The Escatawpa is a small coastal plain river consisting of numerous meandering bends and white sand beaches. These small tannic water streams are devoid of alligators and make excellent warm weather float excursions. There are swimming/fishing holes around every bend and plenty of spots to stop and picnic.

Paddle Distance: 12 miles

Time on Water: ~6 hrs

Safari Length: Full Day

Expected Wildlife:

River Otter, Deer, Feral Hogs, Turkey, Black Bear, Bobcat, wading birds, rare woodland bird species, various raptors, various water snakes, aquatic turtles and numerous frog species.

Season:

Can be paddled year round. Spring, Summer and Fall are recommended as the cool Tea colored waters are most refreshing on a hot and humid South Alabama day.

Styx River

Paddling Safari Type:

The Styx river is another blackwater river with a slower flow than the Escatawpa and a longer float time. These small tannic water streams are devoid of alligators and make excellent warm weather float excursions. There are swimming/fishing holes around every bend and plenty of spots to stop and picnic.

Paddle Distance: 15.4

Time on Water: ~8 hrs

Safari Length: Full Day

Expected Wildlife:

River Otter, Deer, Feral Hogs, Turkey, Black Bear, Bobcat, wading birds, rare woodland bird species, various raptors, various water snakes, aquatic turtles and numerous frog species.

Season:

Can be paddled year round. Spring, Summer and Fall are recommended as the cool Tea colored waters are most refreshing on a hot and humid South Alabama day.

The Basin Negro Paddle Exploration - Boat Combo

Paddling Safari Type:

The Basin is fed by blackwater seepage and forested wetland habitats composed of marsh grasses, Cypress / Gum forest and extensive submergent aquatic vegetation during the summer growing season. Located near the geographic center of the Mobile-Tensaw Delta, the Basin consists of large expanses of open water with seven major creek/bayou tributaries that may be explored at a leisurely pace.

Season:

This trip is limited to optimal weather conditions during Spring, Summer and early Fall. Due to the remote location and width of surrounding rivers, paddlers will be dropped off and retrieved via pontoon boat.

Paddle Distance: 3 – 4 miles

Time on Water: ~4 hrs

Safari Length: Full Day

Expected Wildlife:

Alligator, River Otter, Feral Hogs, wading birds, various raptors, various water snakes, frogs, aquatic turtles and during late summer and fall occasional West Indian manatee.
